

Press information

Corona precautions: Liebieghaus Skulpturensammlung temporarily closed from 2 November

Frankfurt am Main, 30 October 2020. The Liebieghaus Skulpturensammlung will be closed from 2 November, prospectively until and including 7 March 2021. The Liebieghaus Skulpturensammlung is thus observing the official precautionary measures to contain the corona pandemic.

We will inform you of further developments in due time.

Tickets already purchased for the exhibition “GODS IN COLOR – GOLDEN EDITION: Polychromy in Antiquity” (extended until 26 September 2021) will retain their validity for the entire duration of the exhibition. If you wish to return your tickets, please contact the museum by e-mail at besucherdienst@liebieghaus.de.

Over the coming weeks, you can enjoy the Liebieghaus in the comfort of your own home. Use our digital offers. For further information, see liebieghaus.de.

Stay in contact with us by way of the social media channels Instagram, Facebook, Twitter and YouTube: @liebieghaus #Liebieghome.

Throughout this time, the Café im Liebieghaus will offer take-away food and beverages Tuesdays through Sundays from 12.00 noon to 5.00 pm. For information and offers, see liebieghaus.de.
Contact: cafe@liebieghaus.de, +49(0)69-605098-292

Location: Liebieghaus Skulpturensammlung, Schaumainkai 71, 60596 Frankfurt am Main
Information: www.liebieghaus.de

Press: Pamela Rohde, Franziska von Plocki, Jannikhe Möller, Susanne Hafner, Städel Museum, Dürerstraße 2, 60596 Frankfurt am Main, telephone: +49(0)69-605098-268, presse@liebieghaus.de